UCLA Writing Programs: Graduate Certificate in Writing Pedagogy
16 units required

Core Academic Courses
Minimum of 1 class (courses need not be completed in order)

ENGCOMP 401: Current Issues in University Writing Pedagogy (4 Units)
AND/OR
ENGCOMP 402: Writing Pedagogy across the Disciplines: Genre and Discourse (4 Units)
AND/OR
ENGCOMP 403: Language Pedagogy: Form, Meaning, & Function (4 Units)

Language Learner Emphasis
ENGCOMP 495A: Teaching Preparation Seminar: Second Language Learners (4 Units)
AND
ENGCOMP 495B: Supervised Teaching of Second Language Learners (2 Units)
OR
ENGCOMP 495S: Supervised Summer Teaching of Language and Composition (2 units)

First-Year Comp. Emphasis
ENGCOMP 495C: Teaching Preparation Seminar: First Year Composition (4 Units)
AND
ENGCOMP 495D: Supervised Teaching of First Year Composition (2 Units)

Writing in the Disciplines Emphasis
ENGCOMP 485E: Teaching Preparation Seminar: Writing in the Disciplines (2 Units) OR ENGLISH 495B (3 units)
AND
ENGCOMP 495F: Supervised Teaching of Writing in the Disciplines (2 Units)
OR
ENGCOMP 495M: Teaching Preparation Seminar: Clusters (2 units)
AND
ENGCOMP 495N: Teaching Preparation: Writing-Intensive Seminar Development (2 units)
AND
ENGCOMP 495O: Supervised Teaching of Clusters Seminar (2 units)

Electives
ENGCOMP 404: Diversity and Student-Centered Pedagogy (4 units)
ENGCOMP 499: Academic Professionalization Colloquium (2 units)
GRAD PD 495CE: Supervised Preparation for Community-Engaged Teaching (4 units)
GRAD PD 496A: Introduction to Evidence Based Teaching (2 units)
GRAD PD 496B: Teaching as Research (2 units)
GRAD PD 496C: TAR Project Implementation (2 units)

NOTE: additional core courses and EC 495 courses will also count as electives toward the 16 units required. Some departmental 495s will count toward certificate units. Please talk to the certificate coordinator about elective approval of relevant courses not listed here.